

Dyspepsia

Don't think you can cure your dyspepsia in any other way than by strengthening and toning your stomach.

That is weak and incapable of performing its functions, probably because you have imposed upon it in one way or another over and over again.

You should take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It strengthens and tones the stomach, and permanently cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Accept no substitute.

CHURCH BILL IN DEPUTIES.

The New Measure Comes Up for Discussion.

Paris, Dec. 22.—The galleries and the benches in the Chamber of Deputies were crowded yesterday when the government's bill amending the church and state separation law of 1906 was called up. All the members of the cabinet were present. Some nervousness prevailed on account of the attitude of the followers of ex-Premier Combes, as a result of the incident in the Chamber Thursday night, when M. Pellon, Radical-Socialist, demanded time to discuss the new bill, which drew forth a sharp reply from Premier Clemenceau regarding "friends and pretended friends." Many persons believed that the Combes party was secretly ready, if the opportunity offered, to precipitate a ministerial crisis. The Nationalists and Royalist groups, having decided in advance not to take part in the debate, merely deposited a formal protest, to which fifty-four signatures were attached, expressing the opinion that the restoration of religious peace in France could only be brought about by the re-establishment of the union of the church and state.

WOMEN SAW DEATH BATTLE.

Bridery Foreman Dies in Fight With Employee in New York Yesterday.

New York, Dec. 22.—In the presence of half a hundred women on the verge of frenzy from terror, Abraham Loss and Louis Segal fought to the death in a bookbinder's in a Centre street loft yesterday. Loss, who was foreman of the bindery, went to the floor with a deep knife wound in his back, just as half a dozen policemen, who had been attracted by the screams of the women, rushed into the room. His jugular vein had been severed and he was dead before an ambulance arrived. Segal was arrested.

Henry Lapidus, aged 15, employed as a sweeper, caused the tragedy. Segal told the boy he was raising too much dust, and when the boy continued to wield the broom as vigorously as before, Segal struck him. Loss took the boy's part, and in a moment the foreman and Segal were swaying about the room, locked in each other's arms.

The women in the room, unable to escape because the combatants blocked the passageway, began to scream and run wildly around the loft. Just before the police came, it is alleged that Segal caught up a knife which was used for trimming the edges of books and plunged it into his opponent's neck.

The police were obliged to fight their way with clubs through the struggling men and women, who surrounded the body of the dying man. Many of the women were taken to the station house to appear as witnesses against Segal.

CRAZY MAN SHOOTS JUDGE

Desperate Battle Follows in Corridors of The Chicago

COUNTY COURT HOUSE

He Is Finally Overpowered—Assailant Believes That He Has Been Wrongfully Deprived of Share of Sister's Estate.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 22.—A desperate effort was made yesterday to assassinate Judge Charles S. Cutting of the probate court, the assailant being Frank F. Ellerbrook of this city. Ellerbrook is believed to be insane.

Judge Cutting escaped injury by a hair's breadth and overpowered his assailant after a fierce fight. As the judge entered the criminal court building, on his way to his chambers, Ellerbrook, who was standing in the hallway, stepped forward and, within two feet of Judge Cutting, drew a revolver and fired, but the bullet missed the mark.

Judge Cutting instantly turned and struck his assailant a heavy blow in the face, almost knocking him down. Before Ellerbrook could recover Judge Cutting seized him by the throat and held him, despite his desperate efforts to escape.

BYRCE TO BE AMBASSADOR.

He Now Admits That He Has Been Appointed.

London, Dec. 22.—The appointment of James Bryce to be ambassador at Washington in succession to Sir Mortimer Durand is now admitted by Mr. Bryce himself. During the closing session of Parliament today the chief secretary for Ireland (Mr. Bryce) refrained from making any specific statement regarding the reports in circulation but, being repeatedly questioned by his colleagues, he finally did not deny that this was his last day in Parliament. Mr. Bryce was requested to make a statement for publication, but, through his secretary, he declined to do so.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will cure a variety of ailments in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe chronic, hang-on chronic coughs, bronchitis and nervous troubles and chronic sore throat for years. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (excess of inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine relieves many cases of prostatic (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.
